

PARTNER IMPLEMENTATION & COMPLIANCE GUIDE

Property Managers & Leasing Offices

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Interior Essentials provides education-based home strategy tools designed to help residents make informed decisions before, during, and after housing transitions.

This resource supports residents without replacing leasing, maintenance, legal, or financial services.

Why This Exists

Residents often make costly home decisions due to: - Lack of guidance before problems arise - Decision fatigue during transitions - Confusion between maintenance, leasing, and personal responsibility

How Residents Use It

- Self-guided digital playbooks
- Optional courses
- Independent decision support

How Properties Share It

- Resource page link
- Move-in or renewal materials
- Optional resident communications

Interior Essentials® provides education-only resources. Participation is optional and independent. This program does not replace property management, leasing, maintenance, legal, or financial services.
